KNO NEWS LOGLINE

A news crew staffed with psychopaths and idiots bring their audiences the latest breaking “news”. However, when they run out of news, they’re forced to try and make more.

KNO NEWS PROPOSAL

Kno Knews is a 24 minute satirical news show, which follows psychopathic news anchor Vance McTaggart as he delivers the latest breaking "news", on location reports from his staff and trainwreck interviews with politicians. It is the news in its final, apocalyptic form. With the popularity of shows like Adult Swim's The Eric Andre Show and BBC 2's Have I Got News For You, one can see that there is an audience for shows which satirise and deconstruct the news. Kno Knews takes this a step further, deconstructing and poking fun at the medium millions use to receive their news; the television news broadcast. With outrageous headlines, a push for high content turnover and the creation of news by the journalists themselves, Kno Knews will provide audiences with a hilariously catastrophic vision of the future of news. The cast of ostentatious characters is headed up by Vance McTaggart. Media trained since birth, he was born to read the news. However, years of commercial news casting have broken him. Vance prioritises sound bites, outrage and a machine gun approach to news delivery. Vance's right hand man is sports correspondent Zachary O'Riordan. A man who only has vague notions as to what sport is, Zachary was handed the job through his uncle. Rounding out the cast are the morally bankrupt reporter on location Kairi O'Callaghan Walsh, the oblivious business correspondent Thea Griffith and a gaggle of Teactaí Dála from Fine Gael, Fianna Fail, Sinn Fein and the Green Party. The show begins with Vance McTaggart calling out the headlines, complete with clips taken out of context for comedic purposes. After an obnoxious opening Vance welcomes us to the show. The show's content can be broken down into three distinct categories; reports from the field, interviews with politicians in the studio, and correspondents' reports in the studio. The reports from the field begin as odd, dystopian inquiries. The very first report is a look into new government plans to reduce homelessness, while the second report deals with new figures on discrimination in hiring practices. However, as the show progresses and Vance runs out of news, Kairi O'Callaghan Walsh is forced to take matters into her own hands to make more news. The interviews with the politicians are used to get responses on the field reports shown; to various degrees of civility. Running gags include Vance being pally with the Fine Gael TD, the Fianna Fail TD's struggle to differentiate himself from his blueshirt rival, the Sinn Fein TD being accused of terrorism and other war crimes, and the Green Party TD being a puppet of other forces. The correspondents reports in the studio cover Zachary O'Riordan's failing attempts to convince Vance, and the audience, that he is an expert through his sports reports and Thea Griffith's simplistic look at the stock market. The current plan is to shoot in January 2021, both on location in Dublin City and in the National Film School. Producer and writer Ruairí Coughlan is an award winning filmmaker, with his previous works winning best student drama at the Royal Television Society. From West Cork and based in Dublin, Ruairí brings a youthful energy and humour to projects, which he hopes to continue with Kno Knews.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

VANCE MCTAGGART swivels in his chair.

VANCE MCTAGGART
The headlines tonight!

INT. DAIL INTERVIEW ROOM - DAY

A clip plays of a Michael Martin interview.

VANCE MCTAGGART (V.O)
Michael Martin spills the beans on orgy invites.

MICHAEL MARTIN
Well I could go through the likes of Seamus Brennan, Dermot Ahern, Bertie
Ahern himself, others.

EXT. DAIL - NIGHT

A clip plays of a Leo Varadkar speech.

VANCE MCTAGGART (V.O)
Leo Varadkar briefs the press on his working relationship with Green Party's Eamon Ryan.

LEO VARADKAR
I know for me the worst part has been the daily text message I receive around five o'clock every evening. I yearn for the day when it stops.

INT. JAIL - DAY

A clip from a Robert Pattinson press tour.

VANCE MCTAGGART (V.O)
Robert Pattinson returns to jail cell on press tour for the Twilight prequel film.

NEWS REPORTER
Did you spend much time in there?

ROBERT PATTINSON

Yes.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

VANCE slams down cue cards. Sheets of paper fly.

VANCE MCTAGGART

It's time to get fact.

CUT IN TITLES

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

VANCE looks up from the sheets of paper.

VANCE MCTAGGART

Good evening. I'm Vance McTaggart, this is the news.

Vance turns to another camera.

VANCE MCTAGGART

Homes, if you haven't got one you're homeless. With ever increasing numbers of people becoming homeless the government have faced pressure to bring those numbers down. With a new plan to tackle homelessness being published this week, reporter Kairi O'Callaghan-Walsh brings us the inside scoop.

EXT. DAIL - DAY

KAIRI stands in front of Leinster House.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH

Homes, if you haven't got one, you're homeless. This is a fact the new minister for public deficits and extramarital affairs Devon Prendergast has been grappling with for days now.

INT. OFFICE - DAY

DEVON PRENDERGAST sits at his desk in front of his computer. His fingers hover over a keyboard. The computer is turned off.

DEVON PRENDERGAST
You know, you don't really think it's an issue until it effects you personally, like for me when someone showed me a report on my first day and said "stop this", you know?

EXT. STREET, D2 - DAY

KAIRI walks up to the camera.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH
Despite suggestions from opposition parties, Mr Prendergast has come up with a new, innovative solution.

INT. LIVING ROOM - DAY

Superimposed: RECREATION

DEVON sits alone in a sitting room. He watches a television playing static snow. Sitting next to him is a teddy bear.

DEVON PRENDERGAST (V.O)
Well, I was watching the hit 2005
animation Robots, with my son Tyrion.
And I saw the scene with the big robot sweepers, when they gather up the old robots and take them to the chop shop.
And I thought, this is a policy that could be implemented here.

EXT. STREET, D2 - DAY

KAIRI steps into the frame.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH
When I asked about the possibility of seeing giant robots sweeping up the homeless soon, Mr Prendergast was cautious to raise hopes.

INT. OFFICE - DAY

Devon looks up from his computer. There's gunshots in the background.

DEVON PRENDERGAST
Unfortunately due to budget 2021 restrictions, we won't be seeing sweepers any time soon. But, as you can probably hear, we are going through trials of other alternatives.

Beat.

DEVON PRENDERGAST
Really, it's all about reducing homelessness, one person at a time.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

VANCE takes off one of two pairs of glasses.

VANCE MCTAGGART
Fascinating. Now joining me via video link are Fine Gael TD Malachy
McTiernan and Fianna Fail TD Padraig
Paine. Good evening gentlemen.

MALACHY and PADRAIG appear on screen.

MALACHY MCTIERNAN
Thanks for having me on bud.

Vance shoots finger guns at him.

VANCE MCTAGGART
Aces.

PADRAIG PAINE
Ah, yes, thank you Mr Mc-

VANCE MCTAGGART
Alright, calm down. Now. The public have noticed a certain level of tension between the parties in government. Are there internal conflicts within the coalition.

MALACHY MCTIERNAN

There are no...ah... tensions. There's always going to be miscommunication. Mistimed statements, conflicting reports, incitement to violence, death threats; these are all part and parcel of any coalition.

VANCE MCTAGGART

Mr Paine, some would point out that as two very similar political parties, it makes little sense to have conflict.

PADRAIG PAINE

Well, I take issue with that assertion Vance. Fianna Fail has a long history of innovation and an approach to politics which is uniquely our own.

VANCE MCTAGGART

Like what?

Padraig does a double take.

PADRAIG PAINE

Excuse me?

VANCE MCTAGGART

Well, what would be an example of Fianna Fail's unique approach to politics?

Padraig stares blankly.

PADRAIG PAINE

Well.

Beat.

PADRAIG PAINE

Well, we wear these green ties, where as Fine Gael wear blue ties.

Vance looks at another camera.

VANCE MCTAGGART

It's time for the sports news. Zachary, give us some facts.

INT. SPORTS DESK, STUDIO - EVENING

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN, sweating buckets, sits at the sports desk.

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN

Thanks Vance. Professional wrestling, is it a sport? I'm not sure, but ESPN says yes. With his latest match scheduled for the end of the month, I caught up with LJ Cleary to check in on the latest developments on the Irish scene.

INT. STADIUM - DAY

LJ Cleary sits in the stands.

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN (V.O)

If you know anything about professional wrestling, you might just know who this is.

Zachary stands in front of LJ Cleary.

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN

Sorry, what's your name?

LJ CLEARY

LJ. LJ Cleary. Isn't that something you should know?

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN

Would you rather be punched or kicked?

LJ CLEARY

Sorry?

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN

Would you rather be punched or kicked?

LJ CLEARY

Ah...probably punched.

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN

Who would win in a fight, Hulk Hogan or Macho Man Randy Savage?

JAMIE HEASLIP

Well, ah, Hulk Hogan is retired now.

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN
That's not answering the question.

LJ CLEARY
I'm pretty sure Macho Man passed away around 2011, God rest him.

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN
You're dodging the question.

LJ CLEARY
(Beat)
Hulk Hogan, I guess.

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN
When you're heading into a match, were you always hoping for a win?

LJ CLEARY
(Beat)
As opposed to what?

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN
You tell me, you're the professional wrestling expert here.

LJ CLEARY
Yes. Yes, I always hope I win. Are you going to ask me anything about the match at the end of the month?

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN
Professional wrestling, let's be honest here is it a real sport?
Because I have a lot of testimonials from very real people on the internet who say otherwise.

LJ stares at Zachary.

EXT. STADIUM - DAY

ZACHARY staggers out of the building. His face is bruised. He walks up to the camera, limping.

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN
I think it's safe to say, Mr Cleary is just as fiery intellectually as he is in the ring. Back to you Zachary.

INT. SPORTS DESK, STUDIO - EVENING

ZACHARY looks over to VANCE.

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN
Back to you Vance.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

VANCE looks up from a sheet.

VANCE MCTAGGART
Discrimination in the workplace. A scourge of the past, no more. With an increasing number of stories of workplace discrimination coming to the light, Kairi O'Callaghan-Walsh went out to figure out what the suss is.

EXT. PARK - DAY

KAIRI walks through a park.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH
Workplace discrimination; made illegal in 2008, one would think that would be that. But many have come forward since then to raise the alarm on its continued existence.

FAITH sits on a bench.

I find it difficult to get hired, y'know. If I send a CV out with my name on it, Faith Usman, I don't get a call back.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH (V.O)
Faith Usman, a woman of colour, tells me about the latest transgression.

FAITH
But this one time, I sent my CV but changed my name on it to Sarah Moloney, and I got a call back.

EXT. ATTICUS IRELAND - DAY

KAIRI stands outside an office building owned by Atticus Ireland Ltd.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH
The company in question, Atticus Ireland, has had multiple other women and people of colour blow the whistle on workplace discrimination and harrasment.

EXT. PARK - DAY

ANNIE sits on a bench.

Superimpose: Annie Burke - Woman at Atticus Ireland

ANNIE
There's men I work with, who earn seven euros an hour more than me. We've same job, been there an equal amount of time. I raised this with my employer Moses Whelan and he just kind of ignored me while I stood in his office. This went on for hours.

FAITH sits on another bench.

Guys will wolf whistle at me in the office.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH
Are you sure they're not just whistling?

INT. CORRIDOR, ATTICUS IRELAND - DAY

Kairi stands in a corridor.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH
We spoke with Moses Whelan to get his side of the story.

INT. FOYER, ATTICUS IRELAND - DAY

KAIRI stands in front of MOSES.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH
Mr Whelan, do you discriminate against people of colour and women in your company?

MOSES WHELAN
No.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH
Thank you.

EXT. ATTICUS IRELAND - DAY

KAIRI stands with ULTAN GREENE outside the office.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH (V.O)
Ultan Greene, a close personal friend of Moses Whelan came to his defence in an exclusive interview with me.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH
Has he ever discriminated against you?

Ultan shakes his head.

ULTAN Never. Not once. He's always been incredibly nice to me. Never felt bullied or harassed, and I'm sure that even if I were employed by Moses, that would never happen to me.

EXT. PARKING LOT, ATTICUS IRELAND - DAY

KAIRI walks away from Atticus Ireland. Behind her we see MOSES berating ANNIE and FAITH.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH
That's all well and good but what do the cold, hard facts say? Well a study conducted by our very own broadcaster has made a startling discovery. Up to 80% of women and people of colour say that they've experienced discrimination in the workplace.

However, when the same number of white men were asked, the number falls to less than 5%. So, does workplace discrimination still exist? The juries out on this one. Kairi O'Callaghan-Walsh, Atticus Ireland.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

VANCE exhales.

VANCE MCTAGGART
We'll be back after this break.

We fade into black, then immediately fade back up.

Vance swivels in his chair and stares down the barrel of the camera.

VANCE MCTAGGART
Are you a sane person. If so you're probably a fan of the news. You've probably asked yourself; how can I watch more news. Well with The News+ you can. For 14.99 a month you get access to a library of past episodes.

EXT. HILL IN THE COUNTRYSIDE, GERMANY - DAY

ALICE ACKERMANN, a researcher, and BRUNA BRETSCHNEIDER, a singer, stand on top of a hill.

Alice holds an open folder.

PRESENTER (V.O)
On this week's Who Do You Think You
Are: Germany, singer Bruna BRETSCHNEIDER retraces her family's footsteps.

ALICE ACKERMANN
Unfortunately we discovered that your great grandfather was, in fact, a nazi.

Bruna recoils in shock.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

VANCE slams his fist into the table.

VANCE MCTAGGART
Joining us now through video link is
Sinn Fein TD, Muirne Ní Mhuirtigh Suilleabhain.

Muirne appears on a screen.

MUIRNE
Good evening Vance.

VANCE MCTAGGART
Well. Come on then.

MUIRNE
Sorry?

VANCE MCTAGGART
Will you come out and admit that you are a terrorist?

MUIRNE
I... this is outrageous. I came on here to discuss our failing health system.

VANCE MCTAGGART
Am I making you angry, are you triggered, are you going to kill me?

MUIRNE
No, this is utterly ridiculous, Sinn
Fein-

VANCE MCTAGGART
-Say it. Say you kill poor innocent people.

MUIRNE
I never see you take Fianna Fail or Fine Gael TDs to task over atrocities carried out during the Civil War, or the War for Independence!

Vance pauses.

VANCE MCTAGGART
That's different, that was good terrorism!

Vance swivels back around to the main camera.

MUIRNE (O.S.)
Excuse m-

VANCE MCTAGGART
Shut up. Sports now!

INT. SPORTS DESK, STUDIO - EVENING

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN coughs in shock, half way through a vape.

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN
Huh?

VANCE MCTAGGART (O.S)
Sports now!

Zachary looks through his single sheet of copy.

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN
I... Sorry... Um. I think I'm out
Vance.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

VANCE glares towards ZACHARY.

VANCE MCTAGGART
And now, business with Thea Griffith.

INT. BUSINESS CORNER, STUDIO - EVENING

THEA GRIFFITH beams as she stands beside a graph of the stock exchange. She points to it.

THEA GRIFFITH
As you can see Vance, the line went down but now it's gone up. That's really good.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

Vance sweats profusely as he stares off camera.

VANCE MCTAGGART
What do you mean we've run out of news. We're the godamn news.

Vance stands up.

VANCE MCTAGGART
We're the godamn news, damn it! Get onto Kairi tell her to find me some news.

There's a muffled, inaudible response off camera.

VANCE MCTAGGART
I don't care what she does, we need news. Zachary too.

Vance wipes his brow. There's another muffled, in audible response. He straightens his tie and clears his throat.

VANCE MCTAGGART
Ok. Now, via video link technology we have Green Party TD Dymphna Duffy, to talk more about the government's new plan to tackle homelessness

DYMPHNA DUFFY appears on screen. ZACHARY is seen walking past Vance.

DYMPHNA DUFFY
Good evening Vance.

VANCE MCTAGGART
Mr Duffy, how has your party reacted to these new measures?

DYMPHNA DUFFY
Well-

Theres voices off screen on Dymphna's end. Dymphna looks off screen. He takes a sheet of paper from off screen, which he reads from.

DYMPHNA DUFFY

The Green Party fully supports this, and all government measures. Reducing homelessness is in fact, a very progressive policy, so of course it speaks deeply to all Green Party TDs-

Vance looks behind the camera and nods.

VANCE MCTAGGART

Ok, we have to leave it there Mr Duffy. It's time for an update on business news. Thea?

INT. BUSINESS CORNER, STUDIO - EVENING

THEA beams.

THEA GRIFFITH

Thanks Vance-

VANCE MCTAGGART (O.S)

Nice dress by the way.

Thea does a double take

THEA GRIFFITH

Thanks Vance. Business news now, apparently. The banks are all looking steady, with Bank of The Pale having good quarterly results. An update to an existing agreement with the Irish Associates Bank and the Bank of Irish Associates are set to begin new rounds of loans being traded between the two institutions. Observers will have a keen eye on some of the more high profile transfers-

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

VANCE MCTAGGART

Do you have a favourite bank?

INT. BUSINESS CORNER, STUDIO - EVENING

THEA GRIFFITH
Sorry? Uh, well... I dunno. Bank of Ireland?

VANCE MCTAGGART (O.S)
Oh really? That's my favourite too.

THEA nods politely and turns back to her camera.

THEA GRIFFITH
But despite those possible shakeups, all seems stable.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

VANCE MCTAGGART
Seems stable. Seems.

INT. BUSINESS CORNER, STUDIO - EVENING

THEA GRIFFITH
From what I can see, yes.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

VANCE MCTAGGART
But you can't be 100% certain. The whole system could collapse at a moment's notice.

He snaps his finger.

Like that.

INT. BUSINESS CORNER, STUDIO - EVENING

THEA GRIFFITH
Well Vance, from what experts are saying, that appears to be incredibly unlikely.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

VANCE MCTAGGART
I think the people of Ireland have had enough of these so called "experts".

THEA GRIFFITH (O.S)
I-

VANCE MCTAGGART
Are you telling me that there's a zero per cent chance that we're heading towards a total financial collapse?

INT. BUSINESS CORNER, STUDIO - EVENING

THEA GRIFFITH
Well, no, it's always possible-

VANCE MCTAGGART (O.S)
Sorry Thea, I'm going to have to stop you there.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

VANCE looks back down the barrel of the camera.

VANCE MCTAGGART
Breaking news!

A "BREAKING NEWS!" graphic flashes on screen.

Total, global, financial crash warning!

A "TOTAL, GLOBAL, FINANCIAL CRASH WARNING!" graphic flashes on screen.

Leading financial observers warn of the possibility that the fall of our financial system is imminent. One would expect this could lead to job losses, food shortages, general pandemonium. A return to the worst horrors of 2008.

Beat.

VANCE MCTAGGART
And now I'm told Zachary O'Riordan is standing by with a sports report.
Zachary?

EXT. FOOTBALL PITCH - EVENING

ZACHARY stands by a football pitch.

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN
Yes Vance. I'm standing here on the hallowed ground, the football pitch.
Uncountable games have been played here, many won, just as many lost.
Pitches like this one have existed since time immemorial, or roughly 1830. Local sources tell me a U-16s match is to be played right here tomorrow morning. For those of you at home who aren't sports experts like myself, U16 often means Under 16.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

Vance nods.

VANCE MCTAGGART
I see. And what teams are playing tomorrow, Zachary?

EXT. FOOTBALL PITCH - EVENING

Zachary stands still, glassy eyed.

VANCE MCTAGGART (O.S)
Zachary?

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN
Two football teams.

VANCE MCTAGGART (O.S)
Two football teams?

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN
Yes.

VANCE MCTAGGART (O.S)
Which ones?

Zachary sways in the wind.

ZACHARY O'RIORDAN
Home and away.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

Vance looks off camera and coughs.

VANCE MCTAGGART
(to himself)
Ok, it's up to me.

Vance swivels 360 degrees in his chair.

Breaking news!

A breaking news image flashes on screen.

VANCE MCTAGGART
This show's head of research, Israel
O'Hanley has been cheating on his wife with Thea Griffith, our business correspondent. I was personally informed of this in a private conversation with Mr O'Hanley over what he called "a pint". I'm currently reaching out to Mr O'Hanley for public comment on the matter. Thea, what's your reaction to you destroying the sacred bond between man and wife?

INT. BUSINESS CORNER, STUDIO - EVENING

Thea's mouth is agape.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

Vance stares across the studio.

VANCE MCTAGGART
For Christ's sake Thea, say something you're the news.

INT. BUSINESS CORNER, STUDIO - EVENING

Thea sags.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

Vance looks behind one of the cameras.

VANCE MCTAGGART
Oh thank God. Sorry Thea, but I'm just being told there's been a murder in the capitol. Kairi O'Callaghan-Walsh with the report!

EXT. STREET, D2 - DAY

Kairi stands in front of the camera, caked in blood.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH
Death on the streets of Dublin City. I received reports just moments ago that a man was killed just behind me.

Kairi stands to the side and we see a dead body, face down.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH
I'm told that gardaí are on their way to the scene of the crime now. Mystery surrounds the murder weapon, but sources close to me tell me it was this knife.

Kairi holds up a bloody knife.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH
Who could have committed such a crime?
What was their motive? These things,
we may never know.

Police sirens can be heard. Kairi looks off into the distance.

KAIRI O'CALLAGHAN-WALSH
Oh shit. That's all from me Vance, back to you in the studio.

Kairi turns and runs away down the street as the sirens come closer.

INT. STUDIO - EVENING

VANCE looks up from sheets of copy.

VANCE MCTAGGART
And we'd just like to apologise for some of the language used in that report from our reporter at large,
Kairi O'Callaghan-Walsh.

He clears his throat.

KNO NEWS SET DESIGN

When it comes to set design on Kno News, I'm incredibly lucky to be working with an incredibly talented production design team from the Design for Stage and Screen course. We want to try and give the set a sleek, "Death Star" like design, cleverly using darkness to try and create an ambiance on the set that can also cover costs.

We were first experimenting with using one stable set and swapping out props and furniture for each presenter when they came up in the script. However due to the live nature at the show this is not feasible. We are now looking at using three smaller, modular sets for Vance, Zachary and Thea, instead of one larger one. This could reduce build time in the studio, as well as reducing cost. It may also allow us to give the impression that the Kno News studio is larger than it actually is.

Kno News Graphics

A huge component of news broadcasts are their graphics. From the 1980s to the present day, the styles and tone of the graphics used have fluctuated and varied. In Kno News I hope to put some of these styles side by side while also using graphics for comedic effect. All graphics for the show are being produced by Zoe Boss.

The first graphic myself and Zoe need to nail down is the show's logo. We're leaning towards the modern trend of strong colours with heavy block font, as seen below for BBC News, FOX News and MSNBC News.

Another important factor in terms of graphics is the show's intro sequence. For Kno News myself and Zoe have researched many different news intro sequences throughout the years. We're currently working on an intro based on the RTE News intro from 1984-87, images from which are presented below. Our own intro would also involve explosions, wails, screams, gunfire, ambulance sirens and the like, to tie in to the high octane, morbid, apocalyptic tone of Kno News.

Something which really struck me while watching American news coverage of the 2020 Presidential Election was the frequent use CNN made of exciting graphics to announce "Key Race Alerts", as seen below. The graphic was paired with a pompous, almost orchestral stinger. However, it was very rare that these "Key Race Alerts" actually amounted to being key race alerts. They were often just a way of keeping the audience hooked while talking about minor movements in county polls. I think it would be interesting, and funny, to lean in to these kinds of graphics. These kinds of graphics in the show, for the example the “TOTAL, GLOBAL, FINANCIAL CRASH WARNING!” graphic, will be used by the characters to try and aggrandize trivial statements and cover up a lack of any real news.

KNO NEWS MUSIC

News theme music is central to the experience of digesting news broadcasts. I want Kno News to have its own distinguishable theme music, which compliments the show. To this end I am working with music producer Cian Reilis to make such a theme.

It's important that the theme music carries on and exaggerates the tendency of news themes to be grandiose in nature. However, because of the frankly dystopian content of the show, I want there to be a sense of dread in the music. I imagine in the universe the show is set in, if someone were to hear the Kno News intro theme they would immediately associate it with catastrophe and hardship.

In essence? We're trying to create the The Imperial March of news themes.

KNO NEWS EDIT PLAN

In terms of an edit plan, Kno News doesn't require much of one. The show will be shot as live, with some recordings being done without any breaks and others being recorded as live in segments in between VTs.

In the latter case an edit will have to be carried out in order to assemble the different segments of the show together.

KNO NEWS DISTRIBUTION AND MARKETING PLAN

When it comes to distribution, I see Kno News being a post-watershed comedy stable on the likes of Channel 4 or Adult Swim. Those channels have comedy shows in the same biting, youthful vein as Kno News, so there's an established audience there, which I'd be aiming to hit, the key demo of 18-34 year olds, with the possibility of expanding that demographic to 18-49 year olds.

I also plan on looking at festivals, like the Monte-Carlo Television Festival, with the competition for its prestigious Golden Nymph Award..

When it comes to marketing, I strongly believe that the characters are key. Promotional images will be based around each news crew member. I'm also interested in the idea of immersive marketing using social media, having accounts on platforms such as Twitter set up, seemingly run by the characters, bringing the show forward even if it's not on air.

VANCE: Mr Paine, some would point out that as two very similar political parties, it makes little sense to have conflict.

PADRAIG: Well, I take issue with that assertion Vance. Fianna Fail has a long history of innovation and an approach to politics which is uniquely our own.

KNO NEWS COVID CONTROL CHECKLIST

Covid-19 Risk Assessment Checklist

Try to use this risk assessment as early in the production process as possible. There is little point in leaving it until later, only to find that the risks of your production make it untenable to actually produce.

We have prepared a checklist below to help identify key issues you need to work through with your production team and/or a relevant member of the teaching/academic staff.

We anticipate that, after this assessment, some of you may decide that filming now is not practical or affordable. Reducing risks can have significant cost implications, which, in a student production, can be a major issue.

If you find yourself in that situation, you may need to postpone, adapt your idea or find a new one, or try alternative methods of production, such as remote filming.

The template below is a basic Covid-19 risk assessment checklist that, we hope, you can apply to any production, whatever the format, genre or size, to help you address the filming challenges that the Covid-19 pandemic presents. Please remember, however, that these considerations are not exclusive nor definitive. You should always check the latest advice from IADT, as well as local/national government advice. If you plan to travel or film outside Ireland, you will need to check country-specific laws and guidance. You may also, with advice and input from relevant members of the teaching/technical/support staff, identify other issues that could/should be on your checklist.

Please note: This Checklist was inspired by The Documentary Society Checklist for documentary filmmaking.

The Covid-19 student production checklist

Alternatives	Have you considered alternatives to physical travel to the filming location (the highest risk), such as remote filming (medium risk), content generated by the subject (low risk) or not filming at all (no risk)?
Area	Risk	Notes	Code colour Green: Done Orange: In progress Red: To do

Covid-19 awareness
Information	Do you and your team have access to up-to-date information about Covid-19 symptoms, testing, self-isolation and social-distancing requirements (including use of face coverings) both in the country where you are based, and if different, where filming will take place? Do you have up-to-date information on infection and mortality rates in the area where you intend to film?	Each crew and cast member has been given, and read through, COVID Filming Guidelines, as well as completing Screenskills COVID Training prior to this shoot. I try and maintain up to date information on Dublin City.	Green

	Have you completed the ScreenSkills Ireland Return to Work Covid-19 training online?
--	--	--	--

Underlying health and vulnerability	Team members (and those they may live with) might have underlying health issues that make them more vulnerable to the virus than others. While it is important to establish this before proceeding, data protection and confidentiality safeguards around the medical declaration data should be in place. Are your crew and cast/contributors aware of what underlying health conditions are and who should be shielding? Have all team members and cast/contributors completed a health declaration form before filming? How will you make the individuals you are working with (both crew and cast/contributors) aware of the risks and safeguards to enable them to have adequate time to make an informed decision about taking part?	No team member has an underlying health condition that might make them more vulnerable to the virus. My crew and cast are aware of which underlying health conditions those may be and as such no member requires shielding. Crew and cast, who have will be contacted a month in advance of the proposed shooting date. I made sure to clearly indicate all possible risks and the safeguards we would put in place to reduce such risks	Green
Self-isolation	In some cases, you or a member of your team may need to self-isolate. How will you and your team members manage this, if required? Do you have a mechanism in place to help a member of your team to self-isolate? If you, or your director, should fall ill while working, what plans do you have in place to cover your responsibilities, if possible? How might self-isolation of members of your crew/cast affect your production?	Because each member of the crew lives by themselves within walking distance of the shoot, in the case where self-isolation is needed they can return to their accommodation. If I, the director, were to fall ill, the shoot would be postponed. I have other fellow college students on an agreement to come on board as "Plan B" Crew, should members of the initially signed crew members fall ill.	Green
Lockdown	If the country where you are filming imposes a lockdown, what escalation plan do you have to ensure you have access to accommodation, food, basic communication, transport and medical assistance if needed? If you need to evacuate, how will you do so?	All crew and cast live in the Greater Dublin Area. If lockdown was imposed they would simply return to their homes	Green

Supervision and compliance
Supervision	Will you be assigning a Covid-19 supervisor to your production? If so, whom?	Yes a Covid-19 supervisor has been assigned to the production, Aisha Bolaji.	Green

	Will your supervisor have appropriate training? Will they have sole responsibility to organise and supervise compliance? Has your supervisor liaised with teaching/support staff around their responsibilities? Will you need to rotate the role of supervisor, that is, have a Plan B?	Aisha has received appropriate training through the ScreenSkills COVID-19 course. Yes, she will have the sole responsibility when it comes to supervising compliance. She is currently liaising with the teaching staff. If Aisha becomes sick or is unable to make it to set then there is a designated back-up supervisor.
Compliance	Have you got a complete list of those for whom you have responsibility to act safely towards – crew, cast, contributors and others, such as staff? Do you anticipate interacting with other third parties? How can you minimise this? Do you have a system in place to allow contact tracing if this becomes necessary? Have you got written agreements with cast/contributors and crew around compliance with Covid-19 protocols? Have you a mechanism in place, agreed with your teaching/support staff, to enable you to highlight non-compliance, if required?	Yes, I have a full list of those for whom I have responsibility to act safely towards. I don't anticipate us interacting with third parties, unless actors are considered a third party. Documents about agreement to comply with Covid-19 protocols have been sent to all cast and crew. No such mechanism is required	Green

Social distancing
Pre-production	Have you considered how you will maintain social distancing during preproduction, for example, during recces, location research and prop acquisition. Don't forget about pre-production meetings with crew and/or casting/rehearsals with cast.	All pre-production has been done online, reducing social distancing.	Green
Production	How will you maintain social distancing in meetings, filming on location or in a studio? Have you got appropriate signage to enable safe social distancing?	I have specifically tried to maintain a small crew size so that crew and cast can maintain two metres distance between each other at all times.	Green

		Appropriate signage is being manufactured prior to the shoot.
Post-production	How will you maintain social distancing in an edit or colour-grading suite? What about recording studios, Foley suites or mixing studios?	With a single editor on the project the risk of breaking social distancing is severely reduced. Work will be shown and shared over the internet.	Green

Cleaning and sanitising
Amount and types	Are you aware of the different types of cleaning and sanitising products? Do you have enough to cover all the circumstances of your production, from pre-production to post-production?	Yes, myself and my crew have made ourselves aware of the different products, which we have sufficiently stocked.	Green
Equipment	Have you considered how you are going to clean and sanitise any equipment? Have you checked your local institutional restrictions on cleaning equipment and quarantine rules? Have you consulted with technical staff about cleaning technically sensitive equipment?	Yes, all key crew members have checked up on how to safely clean technical equipment	Green
Spaces	Have you considered how you are going to clean and sanitise any spaces where you intend to film? Are there any local restrictions on cleaning, for example, on-campus studio spaces? Do your locations/spaces have good air ventilation and fresh air circulation? Do you have appropriate signage around your spaces to enable safe working practices?	All cleaning and sanitizing of the studio space will be done in accordance to studio supervisor, Dave Cooper	Green
Props	What are the protocols for cleaning and sanitising props? Have you got clear protocols for researching, collecting/delivering, handling and storing all props?	The art department have received proper training on cleaning, handling and sanitizing props.	Green

Personal protective equipment (PPE)
What is PPE?	Do you and your Covid-19 supervisor understand the various types of PPE that are available, given the filming situation you might find yourself in? Is your PPE of a proper standard?	Yes, and all of our equipment is of a proper standard.	Green
Access	Are you fully aware of who needs access to different types of PPE and when?	Yes, this has been done in conjunction with the shooting script and COVID Filming Guidelines.	Green
	Do you have enough PPE to fulfil your production needs? Have you accounted for this properly in your budget? Where can you acquire more if, for example, you run out on location? Do those who have access to PPE know how to put it on and remove it safely? Do they require specific training?	Yes, we have stocked enough PPE. We have noted different shops close to the shooting location where more PPE can be acquired. All crew members are fully aware of how to put on and remove PPE in a safe manner.	Green

Time
Overall production schedule	Have you factored in enough preparation time for planning your Covid-19 protocols, such as risk assessment meetings, with key crew and cast?	Yes, these meetings have been factored into the pre-production schedule.	Green
Daily filming schedules	Have you thought about staggered call times? Have you allowed enough time to clean, sanitise or quarantine equipment, props, studios or locations?	Because of the live nature of the show, staggering the call times isn't feasible. Time will be scheduled into shooting to allow for sanitization.	Green
Post-production	Have you scheduled enough time for cleaning and sanitising edit/sound/colour suites and/or technical equipment?	Due to post being done entirely by one editor at home, the need to sanitize is greatly reduced. They will still practice sanitization for themselves.	Green

Money
Cleaning and sanitising	Have you budgeted for cleaning and sanitising products and, if necessary, PPE such as masks and gloves? Have you thought about costs for appropriate signage, if necessary?	These considerations have been factored into the budget.	Green
Travel, accommodation and food	Have you factored in costs for cast and crew's travelling/parking, for example, taxis or private cars? Have you thought about extra costs for individual food arrangements and utensils? Have you budgeted for appropriate accommodation? [It would be unwise, and illegal, to cram your crew into small bedrooms or have cast share hotel rooms, and so on.]	Transport costs are accounted for and kept down due to close proximity of the crew to the shooting location. The cast will have an allocated lunch allowance to spend in the college canteen. There is no need to budget for accommodation.	Green
Insurance	Bearing in mind that most, if not all, insurance companies will not cover cancellation of productions due to Covid19, have you thought about your budget plans if this did happen? Are you in a position to self-insure, that is, factor in additional budget?	This does not apply to this production due to the low costs of the shoot, and that budget is coming from my, the director's, own finances. There is no private, state or crowd funding.	Green

	Have you discussed potential cancellation costs with your crew? If you are generating income from crowdfunding and/or private investors, are they aware of [and do they agree to] the cancellation risks associated with Covid-19 restrictions? Are they willing to sign a waiver of cancellation fees? Are you aware of the effect of waiver pressure on your production and have you planned accordingly? It may mean local crew and/or investors are reluctant to sign a waiver and no longer wish to continue. Will you require additional health insurance to cover medical costs, if travelling overseas? Do you and your team have it? Are you able to obtain personal medical insurance cover for Covid-19?

Budgets	Have you budgeted for extra time to plan, shoot and edit? Have you got enough money to complete your production safely? Have you double and triple-checked your budget, with your key crew and, if appropriate, with a member of your teaching staff?	Due to the live nature of the show and the limited studio time available, extra shooting time is not a possibility. There is enough money to safely complete the production. The budget has been checked over multiple times by all key crew members.	Green

Food
Options	Have you considered the different options for food provision for cast/contributors and crew? Can they bring their own food? Will you compensate them financially for that? Can you provide pre-packed, individually wrapped, food? If you are providing cooked food on location, is the provider bona fide and following Covid-19 guidelines?	Crew and cast will receive allowances to spend on lunch in the college canteen.	Green
Eating arrangements	Have you considered appropriate spaces to allow for social distancing during meal times? Can you stagger tea breaks and meal times to allow for easier social distancing?	The crew and cast will have designated green rooms to reduce contact Due to the live nature of the shoot, a staggered break system wouldn't work.	Green
	Can cast/crew eat in their own cars, if appropriate? Will you have proper signage and sanitising around eating places?	If they wish to eat in their own cars, and it's appropriate, then that is perfectly acceptable. Crew will have access to proper sanitization.	Green

Travel and accommodation
---------------------------------	--	--	--

Travel	Do you, your crew and your cast really need to travel at all? Can you implement remote ways of working? Are you aware of the latest travel restrictions (such as quarantine periods on entry) both internationally and locally between home and where you plan to film? Are you aware of how easily and quickly you and your production team could return home from filming overseas, if necessary? If travelling locally, have you thought about alternative methods to public transport? Are the local health systems in the area you are filming already under significant pressure? Are alternative medical services available if you or your team might require them?	Travelling is necessary but most of the crew and cast are within walking distance of the shooting location, so public transport usage is greatly reduced. Medical services near to the shooting location are not under such significant pressure that they could not see to a medical issue arising from the shoot.	Green
Accommodation	Have you thought about where your cast and crew will sleep? Will you be able to maintain social distancing in the accommodation? Will the accommodation provide food, and, if so, will mealtimes be conducted appropriately in terms of Covid-19 restrictions?	Crew and cast live locally.	Green

Sustainability
Going paperless	Have you considered the opportunities to go paperless, for example for meetings, or production paperwork?	The pre-production is online and production notes will be kept on electronic devices keeping the production paperless.	Green
Disposables	Try to be sustainable when it comes to things such as disposable cups and cutlery. There are sustainable options available –have you been able to source them?	When the choice is available the production and it's crew will use sustainable options.	Green

Mental health and emotional support

Mental health	This is a very stressful time for everyone, and filming will add to that, so it is important to give sufficient consideration to the psychological effect that producing a film under a global pandemic, or contracting the virus, may have on cast and crew members. Do you have links to your institutional mental health and wellbeing support networks clearly visible on paperwork, such as your call sheets?	All crew and cast members have been provided with links and numbers to mental health helplines and support networks.	Green
Emotional support	Have you planned regular chats with your crew/cast to check in on their emotional wellbeing? How are they doing? Please note: If any individuals have serious concerns, encourage them to speak up (to you or a member of staff) and share those concerns.	As with any production I run, I regularly check in on the emotional well-being of my crew and cast. If they have any concerns they are always encouraged to speak to either myself or another crew member they trust.	Green

Legal
The law	Government advice around Covid-19 restrictions may differ from country to country, state to state, and locality to locality. Before instituting your production protocol, consult and monitor the most up-to-date and evolving guidance on movement and health advice in the jurisdictions where you are operating. What does the government say, right now, about where you will be either travelling or filming? What about the social-distancing behaviour of its residents? Are there any travel restrictions? Do you know when and where to wear face coverings? Are there any limits on the number of adults together? Are there any limited reasons for being in public? Are there any other legal restrictions that might impede your production?	Currently Ireland is in Level 3 which allows the college to bring in outside talent, such as actors. However, after the Christmas holidays, new restrictions will be brought in. It is not yet known for how long these restrictions will last.	Green
GDPR restrictions	Does your production comply with GDPR restrictions around data collection, research material, and so on?	Yes, it does.	Green

Legal advice	Do you have access to legal advice, if needed, on the project? Have you sought advice from your institution? Are you aware of what any legal implications may be? Where appropriate, you may need to ask a relevant member of staff to check your formal risk assessment.	Beyond checking Covid-19 guidelines, there has been no need to seek legal advice.	Green
